

Few majors have a true linear trajectory to a specific career path. An Environmental and Sustainability Studies degree can prepare you for a variety of career paths including, Government, Nonprofit, Education, Fieldwork, and Business. A graduate degree will further prepare an ENVST student for more specialized careers.

General Career Information for Environmental and Sustainability Studies majors:

- U of U Career Services
- Who Hires U of U Grads
- What can I do with this major

Related Disciplines

- Soil Science
- Environmental Law
- Public Health
- Environmental Sociology
- Public Health
- Geology
- Forestry
- Urban Planning

Related Career Fields

Business

- Environmental Consulting
- Policy Analysis
- Green Economy
- Renewable Energy
- Energy Efficiency

Activism Topics

- Fracking
- Divestment
- Mountaintop Removal
- Environmental Degradation
- Protecting Natural Landmarks
- Genetically Modified Organisms

Education

- Teaching
- Research
- Curation
- Administration
- Student Affairs
- Non-classroom Education

Government

- Army Corps of Engineers
- Department of Defense
- Environmental Protection Agency
- Department of Interior
- Department of Agriculture
- Food and Drug Administration
- Lobbying (politics)

Nonprofit

- Administration
- Program Management and Development
- Fund Raising/Development
- Research
- Grant Writing
- Non Governmental Organizations

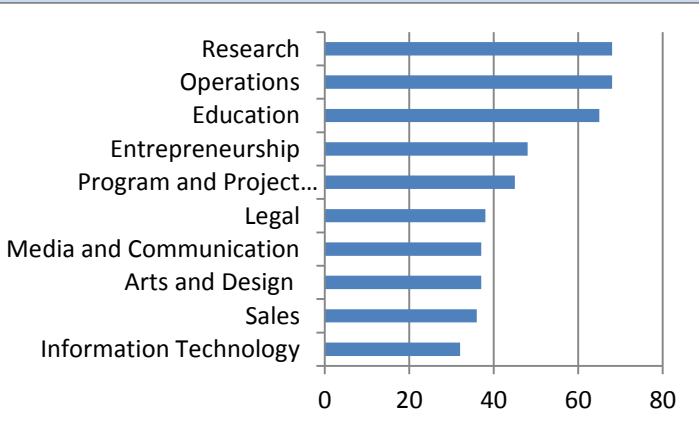

Additional Career Path

Exploration Resources:

- O*Net Online:
<http://www.onetonline.org>
- Bureau of Labor Statistics
Occupational Outlook Handbook:
<http://www.bls.gov>

What are Utah Environmental and Sustainability Studies alumni doing with their majors?

There are 641 U of U alumni on LinkedIn who studied Environmental and Sustainability Studies. Here is a snapshot of the top 10 professions reported.

Select Professional & Student Organizations

- EnviroClub
- Association for Environmental Studies and Sciences
- Global Change & Sustainability Center

EXCLUSIVE STUDENT RESOURCES

Services are FREE for current U of U students up to one year after graduation. Graduates from more than a year ago are eligible for services with an Alumni Association membership.

- Choosing a Career/Career Development – Visit our website (<http://careers.utah.edu>) and the Career Exploration Center (350 SSB) for information on careers/internships, job market trends, salary information, and “What can I do with this major?”
- Career counseling/guidance available including resume review, interview techniques, networking resources, and salary negotiation – see Find Your Counselor on our website or call 801/581-6186. Walk-in counselors are also available on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 10am-3pm.
- Finding a part-time job, internship or career position – easy online access to local, national, and government job postings, as well as volunteer, military and non-profit opportunities on UCareerLink.
- Resume writing help & samples – resume/cover letter writing instructions, examples and career counselor to proof and suggest updates your resume.
- Interviewing techniques – library and web resources, workshops and practice interviews through UCareerLink or by appointment with counselor.
- Career Services Internship Program – obtain local or national internship opportunities to gain practical experience in your field of study for which you may receive University of Utah upper-division academic credit.
- Finding employers and employer contacts – mentor and company contacts directory in UCareerLink and access to national software tools CareerShift. Assistance with creating a profile and utilizing LinkedIn.
- Career Fairs, Student Job & Internship fairs – Fall and Spring, see website for dates.
- On-campus interviewing and information sessions – employers come to Career Services on campus to meet with students. Sign-up through UCareerLink.
- Getting into graduate school – annual fall Graduate School Fair, workshops, and other resources including navigating the application process and assistance with personal statements.
- Career Pathways – join young alumni and professionals to explore and network around a targeted career field. Each event includes a panel discussion with professionals, followed by an opportunity for students to meet and learn more about the variety of careers from industry professionals.