San Jose, Costa Rica

Explore Costa Rica, an exemplar for conservation of natural resources and economic sustainability.

Study the impacts of ancient farming methods, food production, tourism, and land conservation on Costa Rica’s environment.

Application Deadline
February 6, 2015

Learning Abroad
Union, Room 159
learningabroad@utah.edu
ENVIRONMENTAL & SUSTAINABILITY STUDIES

COURSES: POLS 5322
         ENVST 49XX

CREDITS: 6 Undergraduate

DURATION: 3 Weeks

DATE RANGE: May

EXCURSIONS: La Fortuna, Monteverde, Guanacaste, Manuel Antoni, & the Osa Peninsula

ELIGIBILITY

MINIMUM GPA: 2.5
MINIMUM AGE: 18
PARTICIPANTS: Undergraduate & Non-U of U
ACADEMIC: Open to ALL majors
LEARNING ABROAD 101: ALL students must attend one short information session with Learning Abroad

Additional eligibility requirements may apply

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Program details are subject to change.
Please refer to the program web page for dates, costs, & updates.